A ROUND OF TALK.

A Modern Hegire.

"I'm ready to go," said a plump young bug, as he kicked the earth where he'd been a slug.

"I'm tired to death of Paris green Which covers all that's to be seen. It smarts my stomach and hurts my head; My brothers, one and all, are dead."

"I chose my home," said the Cabbage Worm, "Deep in the young plant's tender germ. Alas! the farmer has found me out. With powder and poison he puts me to rout. And now I'm a homeless wanderer, Exiled from house and provender."

"On the orchard's bough I clutched my tent. Where the twigs by the press of wind are bent, But the farmer came with flaming torch, Driving me out to escape a scorch."

Said Caterpillar, "My silver tent With a mass of smoke and flame was blent."

Said the Henhouse Mite, "I'm very small. I thought he'd never see me at all. But 'twas not long 'till he'd come. Came pouring in: I think it's mean."

To plaster us Lice with pyrethrum. And the end of it all is yet to come."

"Who never has heard of hellebore," Cried the Current Worm, with a voice that tore To the very heart of the soft Rose Slug.

Who exclaimed, "Aye, aye; 'tis a dreadful drug! It gives convulsions and makes us squirm In a way that's repulsive to every worm."

Then out spoke the Weevil in angry tone. "I'd like to know when the end's to come? Biisulphide of carbon is death to me, The farmers know it, and I must flee. Who will go with me? We'll emigrate, Whoever remains diserves his fate."

—G. H., in Vicks Magazine.

ANY—If one is to judge from recent occurrences, Springfield and Washington county folks are "easy," for the sandler and confidence man. Two cases of recent occurrence which were fully related in the News-Leader give an example of the fact, but these cases also show that however easily our people are taken in by these unscrupulous strangers they are quick to act when they discover the fact that their confidence has been betrayed as is also illustrated by the two recent cases referred to. As a result of the operations of these two smooth gentlemen one of them has been in our county jail for a week facing a serious criminal charge and the other was bought back from Louisville after he had probably considered himself safe from pursuit and was made to answer and "make good" the damage he had done in his dishonest operations. That the people of this community appear to be easily imposed on by smooth and dishonest citizens is nothing especially to their discredit. It rather shows that the people being thoroughly honest themselves are willing to believe everybody else equally so until they have proven to the contrary. When the proof to the contrary is forth coming however, the good virtues of these slick fellows' rascality are quick to call them to account and force them to pay for their fun.

PLANTS SCARC—"We don't need any Society of Equity to ask us to reduce the acreage of tobacco in our neighborhood this year," said a prominent tobacco grower from the north end of the county the other day. "The weather man has seen to it that there will not be an over production this season unless plants are imported. The heavy freezes destroyed many of the plant buds entirely and what was left is having a hard struggle with the dry weather." This is the situation to a great extent all over the county and the tobacco crop will be short and a late one according to all indications at present.

Bitten by a Spider.

Through blood poisoning caused by a spider bite, John Washington, of Booneville, Tex., would have lost his leg, which became a mass of running sores, had he not been persuaded to try Buckler's Arnica Salva. He writes: "The first application relieved, and four boxes healed all the sores." Heals every sore. 25c at Hayden & Robertson's drug store.

Another Crusade.

New York—Jacob S. Coxey, of the Coxey army of 1894, is planning another great national crusade on new and sensational lines, and he may commence operations the present year. It all depends on the outcome of his investments, which, he says, now look exceedingly promising. Mr. Coxey, the erstwhile "General of the Commonwealth," said:

"I expect soon to be worth several million dollars, and I am preparing to take up my campaign of education where I was forced to leave it several years ago. I shall conduct this campaign on new and original lines, and in a way that it will be certain to attract attention of the nation."

"I will travel with an entire train of cars and a tent capable of seating many thousands, and my coming will be advertised exactly like a great circus. I will also carry with me a complete company of high priced performers, who will furnish entertainment for the crowds during the hours when I am not speaking, so that 'Coxey day' will be a general holiday for miles around every town I visit. "This country is becoming ripe for just a great movement. The indications are all that way. Look at Roosevelt. In some respects he is more radical than I have dared to be and he is the leader of the great conservative party of the country."

Cured Hemorrhoids of the Tongue.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake, of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bell. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

Held to Grand Jury.

The examining trial of the man who was arrested the evening before the recent local option election, on a warrant charging them with entering into a conspiracy to bribe voters was concluded Friday afternoon and resulted in the defendant being held to answer to the grand jury. Each of the accused except Mr. J. B. McAtee gave bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance and was dismissed. Mr. McAtee was used as a witness by the Commonwealth and excused from prosecution. The grand jury will convene next Monday, which is the opening day of the April term of the Marion circuit court.

The trial was begun Wednesday morning of last week, before Squire J. H. Sparrow, the regular judge having been sworn off the bench by the defendants who alleged that they believed they could not obtain an impartial trial before him. During the three days of the trial a large number of witnesses were introduced by the Commonwealth. The defense introduced no proof, but asked a dismissal on the Commonwealth's evidence. This Judge Sparrow refused to grant, holding that the testimony was sufficient to warrant holding the accused to the grand jury. The defendants held over were Messrs. Maurice Doody, J. H. Kearns, Ed Sandidge, Wallace Cardwell, Tom Boone, R. N. Wathen, Ed Coppage, George Alley, Jack Bland, Ben Mattingly, James Colcher and Frank Fehr, of Louisville, and two negroes, Charles Johnson and Henry Smith. All of them except the two negroes are either directly or indirectly connected with the liquor traffic in this city.—Lebanon Enterprise.

Don't Business Again.

"When my friends thought I was about to take leave of this world, on account of indigestion, nervousness and general debility," writes A. A. Chisholm, Treadwell, N. Y., "and when it looked as if there was no hope left, I was persuaded to try Electric Bitters, and I rejoice to say that they are curing me. I am now doing business again of old, and am still gaining daily." Best tonic medicine on earth. Guaranteed by Hayden & Robertson druggists' 50c.

Senator Beck of Kentucky.

Ida M. Tarbell's story of the tariff in The American Magazine is brimful of characteristics of important men. Here is an account of Senator Beck of Kentucky, taken from the May American.

"Beck was a Scotchman by birth and a Democrat of eighteen years Congressional experience. Powerful in body and mind—brave, honest, combative, he led his party in the Senate with great effectiveness. It was on the tariff that Beck was at his best. Let him get after a rate he regarded as iniquitous and he was like an avalanche. 'His mighty arms swung like hammers' wrote an English correspondent who heard him once on that theme. 'His Scotch tongue which some call harsh and rasping thunders out the shortest and simplest Anglo-Saxon words that can be found to compose his terse sentences. Now and then the clinched first comes down on his desk with telling force. The whole speech is made up of facts and statistics. If a flower of rhetoric should spring up in his path he would crush it with his ponderous foot. If a trope should get into his throat he would swallow it. Adjectives, metaphors and similes find no place in his oratory. Like Joseph Hume, he is a man of figures, and like him he speaks like a problem in mathematics."

"Up Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup. Children like its pleasant taste, and mothers give it heartily endorsement. Contains no opiates, but drives out the cold through the bowels. Made in strict conformity to Pure Food and Drugs Law. Recommended and sold by the Red Cross Drug Store."

SPRINGFIELD
MEN HONORED.

Woodson Moss and W. D. Claybrook Elected Officers of the Hotel Men Association.

Springfield was especially honored at the organization of the Kentucky Hotel Men's Association at Louisville last week by having two of her citizens elected to office in that association. Mr. Woodson Moss, manager of the Walton Hotel, was elected President, and W. D. Claybrook was chosen Secretary. The Courier Journal gives the following account of the meeting.

"Aside from the organization of the Kentucky Hotel Association yesterday about fifty of the hotel proprietors of the State, many of them for the first time, met each other and had a splendid time socially. The business session lasted all the afternoon, during which time ideas were exchanged for the mutual benefit of those engaged in the business. The chief idea in the organization was brought out by the speakers was that the aim of the organization was for the betterment of the conditions in the hotel business in the State, and at the same time to secure such legislation as is fair and equitable to the hotel men of the State as well as to the public who patronize these institutions."

The meeting came to a fitting close last night at a dinner at the Seelbach given in honor of the members of the new association by Louis and Otto Seelbach proprietors of Louisville's newest hotel. The banquet was a most elaborate affair, and was pronounced by the guests as one of the most brilliant that ever graced any occasion. Besides the association of the evening year, President—Woodson Moss, of Springfield.

Secretary—W. D. Claybrook, of Springfield.
Treasurer—E. B. Weitzel, of Frankfort.

The president was authorized to appoint a vice president from each congressional district. President Moss only announced a part of the number last night stating that owing to the fact that some of the congressional districts were not represented at the meeting he would have to announce vice presidents in these districts later.

Those announced were as follows:
First District—N. C. Doyle, of Fulton.
Second District—H. G. Leonard, of Dawson.
Third District—G. M. Williams, of Bowling Green.
Fifth District—Pike Campbell, of Louisville.

Sixth District—G. W. Anderson, of Carrollton.
Seventh District—Mrs. Pearl A. Rogers, of Georgetown.
Ninth District—H. B. Daugherty, of Maysville.
Eleventh District—R. L. Parks, of Pineville.

After some discussion it was agreed that the president and the vice presidents should constitute a committee on by-laws.

ENGLAND SAYS NO ALUM IN FOOD

In England and France the Sale of Alum Baking Powder is prohibited by law because of the injurious effects that follow its use.

The law in the District of Columbia also prohibits Alum in food.

and any other matters that should be attended to. It was agreed that a legislative committee should be appointed later by the president, which should take up the matter of legislation that will be offered before the next Legislature. It is likely that President Woodson Moss and Vice President Pike Campbell will be members of this committee. Not more than one name will be added to this committee, as it is suggested that the committee not be made too unwieldy. (The matter of what legislation is needed has not been fully determined, and this matter will be fully discussed before any attempt is made at drafting a bill to be presented at the next Legislature.)

The banquet given last night in the Red room of the Seelbach by Louis and Otto Seelbach was a most enjoyable affair. The real guests of honor at the fair were Mrs. Pearl A. Rogers and Mrs. M. J. Lancaster, of Georgetown, and Mrs. Woodson Moss, wife of the first president of the association.

President Moss presided as testmaster. Most of the local hotel men and also Charles L. Stone, who represented the "rolling hotels" of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, had seats at the banquet board.

Good Judgment

is the essential characteristic of men and women. Invaluable to good business men and necessary to housewives, a woman shows good judgment when she buys White's Cream Cornflour for her baby. The best worm medicine ever offered to mothers, many indeed are the sensible mothers, who write expressing their gratitude for the good health of their children which they owe to the use of White's Cream Cornflour. Sold by the Red Cross Drug Store.

A Wholesale Grocery.

A wholesale grocery company has been organized in this city, and if plans do not miscarry, the company will be ready for business by the middle of next month. At a meeting of the stockholders held yesterday, directors and officers were elected for the ensuing year. Articles incorporating the company will be filed with the county clerk today.

The name of the company will be the Lebanon Grocery, and a wholesale business only will be transacted. The capital stock is $30,000, divided into 300 shares of $100 each. Fifty per cent of the stock has been subscribed, and the remainder will be disposed of from time to time, as deemed for the best interest of the company. The principal stockholders are the directors, who are Messrs. John L. Powell, C. W. Hagan, of Springfield, B. J. Lancaster, J. A. Kelly and T. M. Estes. Officers elected yesterday are John L. Powell, president; C. W. Hagan, vice

To Test The Dog Tax.

A movement is on foot at Russellville to institute a suit in the Logan County Circuit Court in which the constitutionality of the dog law will be assailed. There is great objection to the law in that part of the state and it will be assailed with vigor. It is stated that the act is unconstitutional for many reasons, chief of which is that it is not uniform taxation. In that value each dog at $1 without reference to the actual value of the animal; and secondly, that the legislature has exceeded its power in placing a license tax on dogs, as the constitution only warrants the legislature in placing license tax on certain specified franchises, professions, trades, etc.

Afflicted Like Unto Job.

Matthew Sandidge a pioneer of Hardin county, has been adjudged of unsound mind. His afflictions were equal to that of Job and finally unseated his mind. A number of years ago he was stricken with paralysis. He was afterward struck by a railroad train and made a helpless cripple. A short time since he accidentally shot and killed his wife while she was helping him to keep out a burglar. Two weeks ago he was attacked by grip, which was the final affliction in unseating his mind.

The Man Who Pays His Debts

The man who pays his debts and his taxes may be a blessing or a curse to the community. It depends on what else he does. In making this statement it is to be understood that by the word "debts" is meant the ordinary cash obligation which a man incurs in the transaction of his business. There are men who appear to believe that so long as they are not indebted to their neighbor for goods purchased, or the municipality or the state for the last tax levy they have discharged their whole duty and nothing more can be asked of them. But in reality a man's duty to his neighbor is limited only by his power to do his neighbor good and his duty to the community by his ability to be of service to it. The community in which the prevailing statement is "What do I get out of it?" is one which does not and cannot prosper.—Ex.

Owensboro Goes Wet.

By a majority of 442 votes the people of Owensboro voted in favor of open saloons in that city, after one of the hardest fought battles of ballots ever seen in that city. During the entire day thousands of women and children paraded the streets with banners and prayers were offered continuously. The white forces of the entire State were enlisted in support of the "wet," and their organization was almost perfect. The negro vote played a prominent part in the result.

Preaching for the Times.

Much has been said and written about preaching for the times. The popular verdict is that it ought to be simpler, more instructive, more up-to-date and above all things shorter and to the point. Preach about anything you like this is not absolutely wicked, always provide that you preach about twenty minutes. "I always give my hearers the sincere milk of the Word," said an old and old and rather long-winded parson. "True enough," replied a rather brash parishioner, "but what we want in these days, and more especially in these parts, is condensed milk." Henry Ward Beecher, not infrequently said forth for an hour without taking out his clock, but then he was a genuine. He has been described as the Shakespeare of the American pulpit and Shakespeare was not many. Our Country for April.

Arm Ground Off.
Leslie Newton a young man employed on the St. Catherine farm near town met with a terrible accident at about 3 o'clock
Tuesday afternoon which cost him his right arm. Young Newton was feeding a cutting box which was being operated by horse power. He allowed his hand to extend too far into the mouth of the machine when his fingers were caught by the rollers and drawn into the machine which cut off his fingers and his arm bit by bit until the elbow was reached. The agonizied cries of the unfortunate man attracted the attention of the driver of the horse power who at once stopped the machine which act saved the young man's life. Drs. Robards and Hyatt were called in and amputated
the arm just above the elbow.
From last accounts young Newton was doing as well as could be expected. He is a son of Mr.
Alfred Newton.

STILL IN JAIL.

Charges are Multiplying Against Sam Baker the Insurance Swindler.

Young Sam Baker an account of whose swindling operations among the colored people of the county have been in last weeks News-Leader appears to be in a bad row of stumps and still linguishes in the county jail.

For the past few days Baker's victims have been appearing to file complaints against the young man of questionable methods. Baker seems to have confined his operations exclusively to the colored population and most of his victims are old ex-soldiers. The following is a partial list of the victims and their losses: Quint Paddock, $10;
Jim Crow, $9.75; Jim Biscuit, $5;
Emily Baker, $5; Ned Moran, $1;
Matt Linton, $1; Austin Clements,
$5; Francis Baker, $1; Sweeney
Browne $2.50.

Baker it seems had several attractive stories with which he caught the unwary. He represented that he was writing
"government insurance" and made all kinds of promises of big benefits in case of sickness
etc. He would strike his man for $10 and if he did not have that amount would take what he had and promise to collect the remainder on "delivery of the policy."

Baker had the authorities here to communicate with his folks at Lancaster and on Saturday night
his sister Miss Sophia Baker arrived and on Monday Mr. J. A.
Edge an attorney, of Lexington arrived on the scene. "Nothing has been done as yet however.
The prisoner will probably waive examination on the felony charge. He has already plead-guilty to the offense against the liverymen and is serving out a fine. It was intimated that the prisoner will probably make a short stay in jail. He is said to have been in trouble before.
He is an excessive cigarette smoker.

off honors at the recent graduating exercises in Louisville.
John D. Roberts, of the Louisville College of Pharmacy and Joseph O. Polin also of this place carried off honors at the University of Louisville, Law

papers contained the following:
"Eight students of the senior class were graduated at the thirty-sixth annual commencement of the Louisville College of Pharmacy, held at Leder-
hans Hall yesterday afternoon.
The baccalaureate address was delivered by the Rev. Dr. Horace
G. Ogden, pastor of the Trinity Methodist church. The salutatorian was John D. Roberts, of the junior class, and the valedictorian was Charles Pfeiffer, of the senior class. The prize winners of the junior class were:
Pepper-Neat-Richardson gold medal for best general average,
John D. Roberts; college scholarship in chemistry, for best examination in chemistry, Ernest C. Harding, New Albany; college

best examination in pharmacy,
John D. Roberts; college scholarship in materia medica, for best examination in materia medica, Ernest C. Harding; college scholarship in botany, for

Huber."

Joseph O. Polin, who is a son of Squire John Polin, of near town, was among the number to graduate and receive diplomas
at the law school. He is representative of the Henry Clay Club delivered an oration which was highly spoken of. Joe Polin also won the distinction of capturing two prizes. The Post in speaking of this says: "The capture of both the Edward Thompson prize and the James W. Fairleigh prize by the same student, Joseph O. Polin, was
